

21ST CENTURY JOBS AND ENTREPRENEURSHIP IN THE MIDWEST

SEPTEMBER 22, 2004

What are the business opportunities of the future?
How will the economic landscape of Indiana change?

The U.S. Small Business Administration's Region V Office has compiled a new economic report that examines 21st century jobs and entrepreneurship in the areas of Indiana, Illinois, Michigan, Minnesota, Ohio and Wisconsin.

Hear how these considerations will drive the future of our economy:

- Demographic Trends
- Technological Advances
- Economic Globalization

UAW / Rolls-Royce Corporation Training Center
Indianapolis, Indiana

Hosted by:

Rolls-Royce Corporation
Group

Commerce

Sponsored by:

HUSB Coordinators

Indiana Chamber of

REGISTRATION FORM

Name _____

Company _____

Phone _____ Are you a foreign national? _____

Reservations are required for security reasons.

Fax this registration form by September 17, 2004 to:

U.S. Small Business Administration, (317) 226-7259

For more information, contact Ronda Crouch, U.S. Small Business Administration (317) 226-7272 ext.255

8:30 a.m. Networking
(Coffee and Danish hosted by Rolls-Royce Corporation)

9:00 a.m. –
11:00 a.m.

Welcome

21st Century Jobs and Entrepreneurship in the Midwest

Patrick Rea, Administrator, Region V

U.S. Small Business Administration

Globalization – Indiana Successes and Future Plans

David Dorff, Director

Office of Small Business Advocacy for the State of Indiana